

Quarter 3 Optional Homework

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
1	Practice counting by 2's to 22, by 5s to 100 and by 10s to 120. Try to count by 10s but start at a number like 4. 4, 14, 24, 34, 44, etc.	Bobby has ___ books. Andy gave him some more books and now he has ___ books. How many did Andy give him?	Write a thank you letter to someone. Be sure to give excellent details.	Use a fiction book. Write to describe the character in your book.
2	Practice: Writing your last name. Writing your address. Writing your home phone number.	Billy has ___ crayons. Some are red and some are blue. Show as many ways as possible that some could be red and some could be blue.	Use one of your teacher pick books. Write to tell about the events of your story.	Use any book you'd like. Find 3 interesting words in your book. Write each word in a sentence.
3	How many months are in one year? Make a list to name them. What is the first, sixth, and last month? What are the first three months? Last two?	Sandy has ___ rocks. She gave some to Bonnie. Now Sandy has ___ rocks. How many did she give to Bonnie?	Select a non-fiction book and read it. Write to tell what other information you think should be included in the book and be sure to tell why.	Make a list of words that end with ch, sh and th. How many words can use in sentences?
4	Count the number of gloves, scarves and hats found in your house. Make a graph that shows how many of each you found.	Mandy has ___ puppies. Jill has ___ puppies. Jody has ___ puppies. If they brought all of their puppies to the park how many puppies would there be? Challenge: How many puppy eyes would there be?	Write a short story about a snowy day. Draw a picture of the beginning, middle and end.	Be a detective using your books. Search for word families you know. Make a list. Circle the word family you found. Ex. c(ake) sp(ice)
5	Make a bird feeder from recyclable items. Place it outside. What kind of food did you put in it to attract birds? List and draw the different birds that visit your feeder.	Nick has ___ crayons. He gave ___ to Jim and he gave ___ to John. How many crayons does Nick have now? Challenge: If Nick needs 24 crayons to do a project does he have enough?	Name all four seasons. Write about your favorite season. List three reasons why you like this season the best.	Pick 5 words you really want to learn how to spell by yourself. Have a grown up write them for you and then practice spelling them every day until you learn them.
6	Ask your parents for an extra job that you can help them with.	Mike has ___ basketballs. He gave ___ to Don. Then Susie gave him ___ basketballs. How many basketballs does Mike have now?	Write a recipe teaching me how to make your favorite kind of sandwich.	Make a list of long vowel and short vowel words. Can you write some of them in sentences?
7	Look on the internet, or in a book to learn about another country. Make a poster to show what you have learned.	___ birds have built their nests. ___ birds laid three eggs each and ___ birds laid two eggs each. How many eggs are in the nests?	Imagine you could change the ending of one of your teacher-pick books. Write to tell about your new ending.	Make a list of words that end with mp, nd, and ft. Can you write some of them in sentences?
8	Make a tally chart to show the number of windows, steps and doors in your house.	You have ___ balloons. I have ___ balloons. How many fewer balloons do I have than you?	Write an "all about" paper to teach about a topic you enjoy.	How many little words can you make from this word? Magnificent
9	How many jumping jacks can you do in one minute? Have a grownup time you.	There are 16 clocks. ___ are analog. The rest of the clocks are digital. How many digital clocks are there?	Write a detailed story about a special day you had.	What are other words that mean the same as happy? What are words that mean the opposite of happy? Make a list!